

COOKIE POLICY

Cookies

We use cookies to give you the best experience on the Jules Country Pursuits (JCP) website. If you continue without changing your cookie settings, we assume that you consent to our use of cookies. You can change your cookie settings at any time; however, you may lose some functionality on the JCP website.

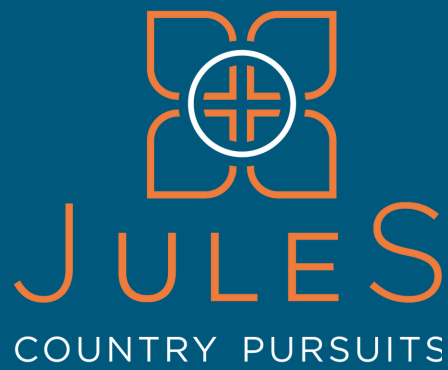

Cookies and other similar technology

JCP uses cookies, server logs and other similar technologies to collect information about your access to the website and the services that JCP provides.

A 'cookie' is a piece of information that contains a unique label or cookie ID number. When you visit a website that uses cookies, the website sends a cookie to your browser's software and it is stored on your computer even after you leave the website. When you visit the website later, the cookie's ID number is sent back to the website, allowing the website to recognise the user which can be a useful function for you. This remembers you on repeat visits, effectively letting you move around the website, without having to keep re-introducing yourself.

We use cookies to:

- Remember that you have used the JCP website before; this means we can identify the number of unique visitors we receive to different parts of the website. This allows us to make sure we have enough capacity for the number of users that we get and make sure that the JCP website runs fast enough;
- Store your preferences or your username and password so that you do not need to enter these details every time you visit the JCP website;
- Customise elements of functionalities and/or pages of the JCP website for you;
- Collect statistical information about how you use the website, to help us manage the functionality more efficiently; and

COOKIES POLICY

- Collect information about the pages on the website that you visit and other relevant information about other websites that you visit to place you in a 'market segment'.

This information is only collected by reference to the IP address that you are using, however, it does include information about the country, city you are in and the name of your internet service provider.

Most web browsers automatically accept cookies but, if you prefer, you can change your browser to prevent that or to notify you each time a cookie is set.

Please note that by blocking or deleting cookies used on the JCP website, your user functionalities might be limited.

By continuing using JCP website you are giving us permission to apply all cookies, server logs and other similar technologies. Note: JCP reserves the right to amend, remove or add new cookies and other technical tools at any time.

If you would like to check, change or disable cookies, then you should be able to alter this in your browser settings. Alternatively, please consult with your internet browser provider for instructions on how to change your cookie settings.

Note: We have no control over third party cookies, which some external providers may use. The external providers may include marketing agencies, our business partners, suppliers or other connected parties who we link to on our website. When you leave our website, we encourage you to read the privacy policy of every website you visit.
